The meeting is held under the auspices of the Lutheran Board of Education in the South of which the following are the members: Rev. W. Hoppe, president, Savannah, Ga.; Geo. B. Cromer, L. L. D., vice president, Newberry, S. C.; Rev. J. W. Horine, D. D., treasurer, Columbia, S. C.; Rev. L. L. Lohr, D. D., Lincoln, N. C.; Prof. E. S. Dreher, Columbia, S. C.; E. W. Peery, M. D., Lynchburg, Va.

All the sessions of the convention are open to the public, and everybody will be welcome to attend. The first session will be held on Wednesday, June 21 at 10 a. m., and the convention will adjourn on Thursday at noon. "As to Cooper and Manning."

Greenwood Index.
The Index is going to say its say about these two briefly once more. The two men stand on practically the same platform so far as platforms go.
To show how the two men stood in the preferences of the people in this county in the first primary two years ago it is only necessary to state the vote. Gov. Manning received the sum total of seventy-nine votes. Mr. Cooper received fourteen hundred and sixty-nine or approximately fifteen hundred. He almost carried the county against the whole field.

Gov. Manning will receive this year more than the seventy-nine votes which were given him two years ago, but most of the votes given him will be new ones. Mr. Cooper as heretofore retains much of that popularity which was his two years ago.

Mr. Cooper has excited no bitter feeling anywhere. People believe he will be fair and impartial in deeds as well as in words. For that reason in this part of the country they are going to vote for him for governor.

If now those great and good newspapers which are laboring for the reelection of Gov. Manning will just realize that there are some folks in the State who intend to vote for Mr. Cooper and that it is entirely unnecessary to use a curry-comb on their spines in the one instance and then squeal about unfairness and all that sort of thing in another, we think the whole situation would be greatly improved. Lets stop misrepresentation and buncombe. A vote is a vote and the man who can get the most of them is the man we must look to to turn the trick.

Installation of Pastor.

The Rev. G. G. Parkinson, D. D., and Rev. E. B. Kennedy of Due West will come to Prosperity Saturday, 17th, to install the pastor on the following day. Order of service, a sermon at 11 a. m. at Prosperity, followed by installation, consisting of constitutional questions and a charge to congregation and the pastor. Order of service at Cannon Creek in the afternoon the same as here and the hour 4 o'clock. It is desired that all members of these congregations be present. The public is cordially invited.

J. Meek White,
Pastor.

MAY NEED SERVICES OF NATIONAL GUARD

Washington Observers Think There is at Least Possibility That Militia Will Be Called on for Duty on Mexican Border.

P. H. McGowan in State.

(Washington, June 14.—For the first time since international complications with Mexico became acute, there is a strong possibility of the war department calling on the South Carolina National Guard. Up to a day or two ago when about 1,500 additional men were sent to the Mexican border to strengthen the forces already there, the war department apparently had not carefully counted the number of regulars remaining within available distance of the seat of trouble, a large part of this force being now in the Philippines, Panama and elsewhere. When the department ordered ten companies of coast artillery and 500 men from Washington barracks to get under traveling orders immediately to go to the border, that left but few more regulars to be called upon. Then the department realized that the next step would be the National Guard.

While department officials will not say that a real step in this direction is being taken, it is known that besides communicating with the authorities of the different States asking that they get their men in good shape generally, figures have been submitted showing just what proportion of the National Guard could be depended upon.

That some suitable mobilization point may be picked in the South by the war department for concentration purposes soon is not doubted by those here who know the situation.

Within a week's time the South Carolina militia may be under orders.

Church of the Redeemer.

(Rev. Edward Fulenwider, pastor) Nothing preventing, the following will be the program of divine services at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer next Sunday:

10:15 A. M. The Sunday school.
11:15 A. M. The regular morning service. The pastor will preach on the subject, "Long Sights and Short Sight." It is common today to hear people speak of far-sighted and short-sighted men. When a man has an opportunity in business and fails, the world calls him "short-sighted." When a man looks far ahead and succeeds, the world calls him a "long-headed business man," etc. But the world's view of long-sightedness may prove to be short-sightedness and vice versa. A fine example will be given in the sermon from the Bible. Three thousand years has proven the wisdom and far-sightedness of a man whom the world called short-sighted. Some things will be presented in the sermon that every citizen of Newberry ought to hear especially just at this time.

Come and worship with us. You are always welcome.

Preparedness

In preparation there is power.

This principle holds good between business men as well as between nations.

We have put in and recommend
